

A Thousand Miles in One Hour.....

A Thousand Miles is a long way, but together we can run it in just one hour! Children run together for International Children's Day 2017....

About the Event

- Run 1,000 miles in one hour
- Unite children across the world
- Encourage health and fitness
- Promote working together as a local and international community with children from the UK, Uganda, Cambodia, Palestine and America coming together.

DATE FOR YOUR DIARY:* Walk to Break the Cycle: A Thousand Miles will be held on Friday 9th June 2017.

About Schools Registration:

Cost: £3 per child

You will receive:

- A Walk to Break the Cycle t-shirt for each paying child
- Edukid schools workers will visit your school prior to the event to meet staff/ students
- Local and national PR for participating schools
- The opportunity to encourage Global Citizenship for your students and community