Can you go the extra mile for children growing up in poverty and conflict?

Walking to the moon may seem impossible, but if we work together, we can achieve anything. Help us to walk 239,000 miles in 2017.

About the Event

- Walk a mile a day for a year
- Encourage a sense of community within your school
- Improve fitness and wellbeing
- Fight obesity
- Raise money for children living in poverty
- Increase children's attention in the afternoon!

SIGN UP NOW! Sign up by 15th November and you will get schools' registration FREE

About Schools Registration:

£99 school registration fee (after 15th November) and £3 per child registration includes:

- A visit from an Edukid Schools' Workers to meet staff and pupils and explain the initiative
- Support from Schools' Workers, including liaison throughout the year and a final "thank you" assembly at the end of the event
- All participating children and families will be invited to the closing awards party
- the school with the most children registered to Walk to the Moon will be entered into the Walk to the Moon competition.*

Each registered child will receive:

- A wrist band
- A pedometer

*If we achieve our target of walking to the moon, the school with the most registered children will be entered into a prize draw to win one teacher a flight to an Edukid country of their choice.
